Cofi[™]

Seating

A great first impression.

It's All About The Details

Engaging a new client, interviewing a potential employee, introducing yourself to a new board member – everything you do, say, and represent can have lasting effects. There's no question the same is true for an office chair – how it evolves a space and how you feel when you sit in it. Cofi makes its mark in a truly exceptional way. With two back heights, three back designs, and a variety of multi-fabric, base, and arm options, Cofi goes above and beyond when it comes to premium detailing and stunning aesthetics. Plus with its intuitive functionality, you'll get a remarkably comfortable and supportive sit to help you conquer the day.

Close The Deal In Comfort

Whether you're calling the shots in a private office or presiding over a board meeting in a conference room, you - and your cohorts - need a seating solution that reflects the way you work. That means powerhouse performance, elegance in motion, and the power of choice. With three user-friendly control mechanisms and two back choices - Executive or Managerial - Cofi provides smart support and the comfort you deserve, no matter how long the collaboration continues.

“We wanted the design (of Cofi) to have a classic modern form, with the kind of quality and detailing that you would find on a beautifully crafted handbag or briefcase. Through its tailoring, slimness of form, and high quality elements - like polished aluminum arms and base - Cofi is an elegant and classic solution for exceptional seating needs.”
